1. Important Advice

- The use of the adventure park requires concentration and is associated with risks that can lead to serious injuries. You use the park at your own risk. To ensure that you maintain the correct level of concentration, the park should be used for a maximum of three hours.
- Every user of the adventure park must take part in a safety course and complete the practise course correctly. The adventure park must be used in accordance with safety rules and the demonstration in the practice park.
- The various courses are followed without supervision. Users of the adventure park are responsible for their own safety and must obey the rules according to the safety demonstration. When those rules are not followed users may be asked to leave the park. The owner of the park is exempt from responsibility.

2. Eligibility requirements

3. Special safety regulation according to demonstration and practice course

In addition, the safety carabiner must always be attached at the red marking. Attention! Except at the climbing walls and the start of the black courses: there, the safety carabiner must be clipped onto the self retracting lifeline (pictures on site are referring to that as well). The safety key instead must be inserted as always into the security cable.
- The rope slide (flying fox): The pulley must be clipped to the rope marked in green. Before starting, the flying fox must be clear of people to avoid a collision. Never touch the steel cable when using the pulley (risk of injury)!

- Long open hair must be tied back or secured in such a way that it cannot be caught; for example in the rope slide. Naval piercings must be covered with a plaster or removed to prevent it catching on equipment.
- When using the park, items like mobile phones, cameras, rucksacks, drinking bottles etc. may not be used or attached to the user as they could fall on others or cause the user to get stuck.
- The equipment (helmet, climbing harness, straps with safety key and safety carabiner, pulley) must be used in according to the safety and practise course and mustn't be taken off during the use of the adventure park. Also the gear/the entry ticket is not transferable to another person!
